PRESENT PERFECT

The form of the present perfect simple tense:

Subject + Have (in the simple present) + Verb (in the past participle form)

Positive	Negative	Question
I have worked there. He has worked there. We have worked there.	I have not worked there. He has not worked there. We have not worked there.	Have you worked there? Has he worked there? Have we worked there?

Write the negative, and question form of the sentences.
Use hasn't and haven't

Example:

The class has begun.

Neg: The class hasn't begun.

Question: Has the class begun?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

1. I have chosen a new pet.

Neg:

Question:

2. My cat has brought me a ball.

Neg:

Question:

3. Rosy has met famous people.

Neg:

Question:

4. My sister has bought a new car.

Neg:

Question:

5. My mom has cooked pozole.

Neg:

Question:

6. The computer has broken down.

Neg:

Question:

LIVEWORKSHEETS

7. I have lost my wallet.

Neg:

Question:

8. Ana has flown to Paris.

Neg:

Question:

LIVEWORKSHEETS