Si Tangkas the Pig-tailed Monkey

Type the correct answer. You may choose your answer from the word in the bracket.

I also like to accompany my father (to , for) pick coconuts from our coconut trees. We (use , used) to pick coconuts twice a month. However, it was not my father who climbed (to , the) coconut trees but our monkey 'Si Tangkas'. He is a pig-tailed monkey or known locally as 'Berok'. We called him 'Si Tangkas' because he (was , has) a fast climber. 'Si Tangkas' was trained (by , with) my father to climb the coconut trees since he was small. He could climb (in , up) to 50 coconut trees (a , an) day.

'Si Tangkas' would climb the tree while (he , my) father would hold a thin rope tied to (his , he) neck so that my father could control his movement. Sometimes, if the coconut trees were close to each other, 'Si Tangkas' would just leap from one tree to another tree and toss down the coconuts (into , to) the ground.
