

"The Emperor and the Nightingale"

PUT THE STORY IN ORDER:

The next day, the nightingale started to sing and everyone listened. The emperor was happy.

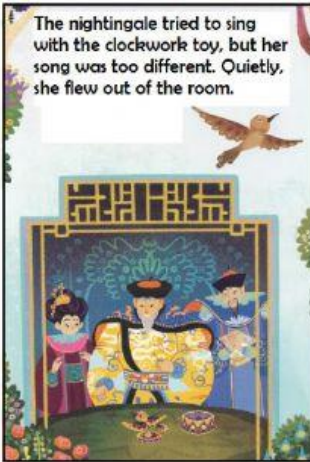

They made a golden cage for the nightingale. It didn't like living in a cage.

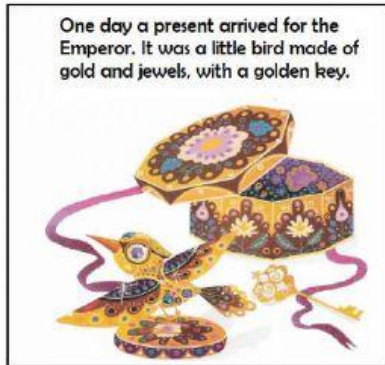

The prime minister and the little servant girl went to the forest. They want to find the Nightingale.

The nightingale tried to sing with the clockwork toy, but her song was too different. Quietly, she flew out of the room.

One day a present arrived for the Emperor. It was a little bird made of gold and jewels, with a golden key.

The prime minister didn't know anything about the nightingale.
