

Match the extracts from emails with an informal way.

- . I'm sorry to let you down, but I can't help you out with your project after all.
- . We're running out of photocopier ink. Can you order some more please? Shop around for the lowest prices.
- . Sorry, I haven't got round to finishing off the report you asked for, because I've been a bit tied up.
- . If you want to apply for the job, you need to send in your application form before 14th April, otherwise you'll automatically be turned down.
- . There are a few problems with your quality control report. Can you drop by some time, and I'll go over the correct procedure with you?

1. I'm afraid I haven't been able to complete the report you requested because I've had a number of other tasks to complete.
get round to / tied up

---

---

2. I have noticed a few problems with your quality control report. Please would you come to my office at your earliest convenience so that I can review the correct procedure with you.
drop by / go over

---

---

3. To be considered for the post, please submit your application form before 14th April, otherwise your application will automatically be rejected.
send in / turn down

---

---

4. I'm sorry to disappoint you, but I won't be able to assist you in your project after all.
let down / help out

---

---

5. Our supplies of photocopier ink are low. Could you order some more please? Try different stores for the lowest prices.
run out of / shop around

---

---

