

Prepositions, Conjunctions, and Interjections

1. A preposition shows the association and relationship of a noun or a pronoun to some other word.

A compound preposition is made up of more than one word.

The trees near our house provide plenty of shade.

The stores were closed because of holyday.

2 This are some of prepositions: below, about, above, according to, across, after, against, along, among, around, as, at, because of, before, behind, beneath, beside, besides, between, beyond, but, by, concerning, down, during, except, for, from, in, inside, in spite of, into, like, near, of, off, on, out, outside, over, past, round, since, though, till, to, toward, until, under, underneath, , up, upon, with, within, without,.

Place find the right prepositions, conjunctions, and interjections word

Conjunctions examples:

- Above
- Across
- Against
- Long

Prepositions examples:

- Congratulations!
- Goodness.
- Oh dear.
- Oh yes!

Interjections examples:

- And
- But
- For
- Nor

ANSWER KEY

Conjunctions examples:

- And
- But
- For
- Nor

Prepositions examples:

- Above
- Across
- Against
- Along

Interjections examples:

- Congratulations!
- Goodness.
- Oh dear.
- Oh yes!