

MAIN IDEA

Sometimes a sentence in the story tells the main idea.

Select the sentence in each group that tells the main idea of the story.

Plants have many uses. We eat their leaves. We use their roots for food. Sometimes we use leaves to cover our houses.

- a. Plants have many uses.
- b. We eat the leaves of plants.
- c. We use their roots for food.

We get milk from a cow. Milk has many uses. Milk is used to make butter. Milk is also used to make ice-cream. Do you know that they use milk to make paint as well?

- a. We get milk from cows.
- b. Milk has many uses.
- c. Milk is used to make butter.

When a hen has chicks, she becomes fierce. She attacks any animal or person who comes near her chicks. She covers her chicks with her wings when it is cold. She uses her beak to crush food for her chicks.

- a. A hen attacks her enemies.
- b. A hen takes care of her chicks.
- c. A hen makes chicks.

