The Taming of the Shrew: pages 30-36

Choose True or False.

1. Petruchio shouted at the hat-maker that the hat was as big as the church bell.
2. Once more, Katharine obediently agreed with her husband.
3. Petruchio engaged in an argument with his wife.
4. Katharina disagreed with her husband about the dress.
5. Petruchio and Katharine dressed up to go to Baptista's house.
6. Petruchio said they would get there by suppertime.
7. Petruchio cancelled the visit on account of his wife's disagreements.
8. They almost turned back on the journey as Katharine stated it was the sun, no the moon.
9. Petruchio put Katharine to the test again when they met an old gentleman on the road.
10. Vicentio was on his way to Padua for his son's wedding.
11. Another wedding took place – that of Bianca and Hortensio.
12. Petruchio challenged the two new husbands to see whose wife was the most obedient.
13. Katharine's failed the test.
14. Baptista was so delighted that he gave Petruchio money for his achievement.
15. Back in her hometown, Katharine went back to being the Shrewd.

LIVEWORKSHEETS