The next morning, I woke up on the beach. There was a very small man a few centimetres from my nose. He was a soldier and had a bow and arrow and he was afraid.

There were hundreds of soldiers and they all had bows and arrows. I tried to stand up but the soldiers shot arrows at me. The arrows were very small but I didn't try to stand up again.

I was very hungry. I asked for food but the soldiers didn't understand. They didn't speak English. I pointed to my mouth and they understood. Then the soldiers fed me.

I was very tired after my meal and slept. A thousand horses pulled the wagon.

That night the soldiers took me to their city.

My name is Lemuel Gulliver and I'm a ship's doctor. On 5th November, 1699 there was a terrible storm. There were huge waves and my ship hit a rock. Then I swam to an island.
