I've got lots of friends. Here we all are. Do you know who is who?

Harry likes football. He's medium height with short spiky hair. He hasn't got a fringe.

George isn't playing football, he's taking photos. He's got short dark wavy hair but he hasn't got a fringe. He has always got a shirt on. He's very smart.

Jack has got blonde, curly hair. He hasn't got a fringe and he hasn't got freckles. He's riding a bike. He's really sporty.

Richard hasn't got a fringe but he has got freckles on his nose. He is very clever and hard-working – look, he's doing his homework!

And this is me – I'm David. I like football and rollerblading. I'm very sporty. I've got short dark straight hair. I've got a fringe, too. I'm medium height.

My favourite day is Thursday. It always starts with [1]science / maths. The class starts at [2]half past 9 / 9 o'clock and it finishes at half past 10. Last week, we learnt about the human body and before that, we studied the world around us. After lunch, we sometimes have [3]music / art. It's my favourite subject. I love painting and drawing!

Yesterday was Tuesday, so first we had [4]project work / maths. After break, we [5]sometimes / always have PE. We usually go outside and do athletics but in winter we often play volleyball inside.

Lunch is always at [6]quarter past 12 / 1 o'clock. We sometimes have [7]maths / project work after lunch. We sometimes draw shapes or add numbers.

We [8]always / sometimes have [9]science / literacy for the last lesson of the day. We often write stories which is fun.

School always finishes at [10]quarter to 3 / quarter to 4. This evening, I stayed after school and went to music club.

bye bye kids!!!
