GO TO THE SUPERMARKET

At the weekend, Helen's mum says: "Can you come to the supermarket with me, Helen?" "Yes, I can!" says Helen. She is very happy because she enjoys shopping and she wants to buy some DVDs. So they catch the bus and go to town because it's faster than riding a motorbike. They are in the bus stop and wait for the bus coming. The bus stops near the supermarket and they go inside to start shopping.

Inside the supermarket, Helen's mum buys some fruits, bread and cheese. But she can't find the pasta. Helen looks and finds the pasta under the rice. Her mum is happy and says: "You're a very good girl, Helen. Now, what do you want to buy?" Helen thinks and tells her mum "I want to buy some new DVDs to watch films at home." Helen's mum says "We can go to cinema and watch films on Friday next week, so you don't need to buy any DVDs. And now you can help me to carry the bags." Helen carries one small bag and her mum carries the big one. They walk to the bus stop, catch the bus and go home.
