Romeo and Juliet:
pages 37-45

Fill in the blanks with an appropriate word or phrase.

In Verona there was a long-lasting _____ between two families: the _____ and the _____. Once the Capulets gave a supper, to which everyone who was not a Montague was _____. As Romeo Montague was lovesick for _____, his friend, Benvolio, advised him to attend the feast wearing a _____ so that he could meet other young ladies. Romeo did as he was suggested and fell in love with Juliet, without _____ she was a Capulet. Tybalt, Lord Capulet's _____, recognized his _____ and wanted to start a fight, but was not allowed to by Lord Capulet. Romeo walked up to Juliet and _____ loving words in her ears. Juliet was impressed and _____ love with this masked stranger. When her mother called Juliet, Romeo learnt his beloved's true _____. When the party was over, Romeo climbed a wall into a _____ at the back of Juliet's house. To his surprise, Juliet was at a _____, speaking of her love for him. After hearing in _____ for a while, Romeo finally spoke. Juliet was embarrassed by the way in which he had learnt about her feelings. The youngsters engaged in a long _____ about love and family _____. Eventually, they arranged to _____. At dawn Romeo went to see _____ to ask him to marry them. Friar Lawrence agreed hoping that this union would put _____ to their families' quarrel. After the ceremony Juliet went home to _____ until it was night, when the newly-wed would be reunited.

That same morning there was a street _____ between some Capulets and Montagues, resulting in the death of _____ at the hands of _____. Romeo avenged his friend by _____ Tybalt. After hearing _____'s account of the incident, the _____ determined that Romeo should be banished from Verona.

LIVEWORKSHEETS