

Revision of Prepositions

Fill in the blanks with correct prepositions. If there is none needed, use a hyphen (-).

1. Shakespeare is famous _____ his plays, especially Hamlet and Romeo ja Juliet.
2. To avoid being late _____ school, you'll have to leave _____ school earlier.
3. Why were you absent _____ school? Did you suffer _____ a headache or did you fall ill _____ a flu?
4. Everybody agreed _____ her plan of going _____ the next village _____ foot and not _____ bus.
5. She was an accountant _____ profession and decided to apply _____ a job at Amazon.
6. It's so typical _____ granny to look _____ her glasses all the time!
7. Noah knows many facts _____ heart and we can always rely _____ him in quizzes.
8. Don't laugh _____ me! I don't believe _____ ghosts!
9. Explain it _____ me! Why do I have to apologise _____ him _____ words I haven't said?
10. Congratulations _____ your new baby!
11. The criminal was accused _____ burglary.
12. When I entered _____ the living room, everybody was sitting _____ the dinner table and speaking _____ French.
13. Dad was sleeping _____ the armchair and children were asked to speak _____ a low voice or _____ whisper.
14. We're going _____ a trip _____ Vormsi _____ the end _____ the month.
15. This book is based _____ the events of real life.
16. What can you watch _____ TV _____ Sunday evenings?
17. Luckily little Alyssa arrived _____ school _____ time although there were lots of distractions _____ her way _____ school.
18. _____ Midsummer Eve my brother came _____ home _____ sunrise and mum was very angry _____ him.
19. My father has known Mr Brown _____ they were kids. This means that they've been friends _____ ages!
20. I felt so sorry _____ my bestie because her dog had died _____ cancer.
21. Estonia is popular _____ foreign tourists because it's rich _____ bogs and swamps.
22. What can you see _____ the picture? – Well, there's a white building _____ the background.