He often went to shops to look for nice clothes, but he didn't often find any. Then his grandma taught him to make his own clothes. When he was nine, Mo started making bow ties. He wore them with his favourite shirts and jackets. Then he put photos of his bow ties on the Internet to sell them. There were spotted ones and striped ones, but there weren't many plain ones. They were very popular. When he was 11, he went on TV to talk about his bow ties. And when he was 13, he went to the White House to meet the president of the United States!
