Read the text and decide if the sentences are true or false. Circle T (true) or F (false).

My Life Without Money

Heidemarie Schwermer, a 63-year-old German woman, has lived without money for the last ten years, and has written a book about her experiences called My Life Without Money.

At the age of 54, Heidemarie quit her job as a psychotherapist, gave away all her money and her apartment, and threw away her credit cards. Today, aside from some clothes (three sweaters, two skirts, two pairs of shoes, and a coat) and a few personal belongings, she doesn't own anything.

It all began as a one-year experiment. In her home city of Dortmund, she set up a "swapping circle" where people exchange services without using money, for example, a haircut for a mathematics class. To prove that this could work, she decided to give up using money for a year. But when the year ended, she continued and has not used money since then.

At first she house-sat for friends who were on vacation. She stayed in their houses in return for watering the plants and taking care of their animals. At the moment, she is staying in a student residence where she can sleep, take a shower, or use a computer in return for cooking for the young people who live there. She also "works" as a psychotherapist. "Before I treated very wealthy people but now I help anyone who turns up... Sometimes they give me something in return, but not always."

Heidemarie says, "I can live thanks to my contacts. A lot of people who know me understand what I'm doing and want to help me. When I need a bus ticket, for example, or a new tube of toothpaste I think, 'Who can I ask? What can I give them in return?' If I want to go to the movies, I might offer to take care of somebody's children for the afternoon."

It is one of the mistakes of our society that most people do something they don't like just to earn money and spend it on things they don't need. Many people judge you according to how much you earn. In my opinion, all jobs are equally important. You may not earn a lot of money, but you may be worth a lot as a person. That's my message."
