

The Wax Man

Author: Olga Loya

- The fox asked the wax man to
 - go away.
 - move out of the way.
 - play with her.
 - give her a chicken.
- Each time the fox talked to him, the wax man
 - bowed.
 - smiled.
 - cried.
 - sang.
- For helping her, the fox offered to
 - pay the coyote.
 - be a friend to the coyote.
 - give the coyote a chicken.
 - make the coyote a king.
- This book was written by
 - Irina Hale.
 - Olga Loya.
 - Arthur Dorros.
 - Nola Buck.
- When it started raining, the coyote
 - ran away.
 - took out an umbrella.
 - howled and cried.
 - ran to the chicken house.
- What happened to the fox's hands?
 - They stuck to the wax man.
 - They were caught in the fence.
 - The chickens pecked at them.
 - They slipped off the wax.
- The fox said she would _____ the wax man.
 - marry
 - pay
 - hit
 - kiss
- When she was loose, the fox
 - fell on the ground.
 - ran over the hill.
 - climbed the fence.
 - thanked the coyote.
- The coyote asked the fox
 - where she was going.
 - to show him the way home.
 - what had happened to her.
 - if she wanted to go to the park.
- The fox slipped through the fence each night because
 - she wanted to meet the other fox.
 - she was afraid of the dark.
 - she wanted to eat the chickens.
 - she wanted to go to the lake.

11. The fox and the coyote decided
- A. never to steal a chicken again.
 - B. to stay away from wax men.
 - C. to treat one another kindly.
 - D. stay at home when it rained.
12. The farmer made the wax man because
- A. he wanted to scare something.
 - B. he had entered an art contest.
 - C. it was his hobby.
 - D. it was almost Halloween.
13. The coyote melted the wax man with
- A. a match.
 - B. his tears.
 - C. a coat.
 - D. his breath.
14. When the fox found the wax man,
- A. she gave it a name.
 - B. she was afraid.
 - C. she took it home.
 - D. she knocked it over.
15. The fox was angry with the wax man because
- A. the wax man was melting in the sun.
 - B. the wax man told the cat her secret.
 - C. the wax man did not move.
 - D. the wax man did not answer her question.
-