

When we look at advertisements, there may be different reasons why we may be interested in the products advertised. Often, the way how the product is presented and where it is presented can also help to sell it. But sometimes the sellers may lie about products.

Instructions: Here are 5 products. Look at each product, then click the correct box in the table below for each product.

product 1: ↑

product 2: ↑

product 3: ↑

product 4: ↑

product 5: ↑

Look at the table. What is the benefits (good things) about each product? One of the sellers may be lying to you!

Product 1	Product 2	Product 3	Product 4	Product 5

The way how this product is advertised is smart, because many people will see the product.

This may not be true.
(The sellers is telling a lie)

With this product, you can build a great body and be strong.

The advertisement says the product is fresh and have good nutrients.

The product is very useful.
You can do so many things with it and use many apps.