

Complex Sentences

Use the connectives to create a complex sentence.

1. since                      if                      although

I will wear a rain coat.

It is raining.

2. when                      although                      if

Math is a fun subject.

Some people find it difficult.

3. when                      until                      although

Molly can listen to music.

She has eaten her dinner.

4. until

if

although

I don't want to stop writing.

I finish my work.

5. since

if

although

I will be there.

I am running late.