Once there was a big dog. The dog got a piece of meat. He carried the meat home in his mouth so that he could enjoy it there later. On the way home, he came to a bridge over a river. When he crossed the bridge, he looked down into the water. In the river he saw another dog. That dog was big and also had a piece of good meat in its mouth. He wanted that meat, too, so he tried to bite the other dog. But when he opened his mouth, his meat fell into the water with a splash and disappeared. So he went home with nothing and stayed hungry.

1. Choose (T) or False (F):

- a. When the dog opened his mouth, his meat did not fall into the water.
- b. The dog carried the fish home in his mouth.

2. Answer questions:

- a. What did the dog do when he crossed the bridge?
- b. What did the dog see in the river?
- c. Why did the first dog try to bite second dog?

William Shakespeare was the greatest writer in the English literature. He was born in 1564 in Stratford-upon-Avon. At the age of eighteen he married Anne Hathaway, who was eight years older than himself. A few years later he moved to London, where he worked as a actor and a playwright. Shakespeare wrote thirty seven plays and 154 sonnets (a kind of poem containing 14 lines). His most famous plays are the four great tragedies - Othello, Macbeth, Hamlet, and King Lear. Shakespeare died in Stratford on 23 April 1616, but his plays are still very popular today. They have been translated into different languages, and many of them have been made into films, both in English and other languages.
