Hi Eva,

I was so happy to get your email. I'm thinking about changing my line of work. My current career in computers isn't making me happy, and I don't want to do it forever. I just want to enjoy my livelihood. I have good computer skills, and I like working with people. I would prefer an office job; I don't have the skills to do a trade. It would be great to have some freedom at my job. I have always wondered what it would be like to have different assignments, like a journalist. Could you suggest some jobs that might interest me?

Write back soon,

Ben
