Every year, students in many countries learn English. Some of these students are young children. Others are teenagers. Many are adults. Some learn at school, others study by themselves. A few learn English just by hearing the language in films, on television, in the office or among their friends. But not many are lucky enough to do that. Most people must work hard to learn another language.

Many boys and girls learn English at school because it is one of their subjects. They study their own language, mathematics, and English. In England, America, or Australia, many boys and girls study their native language, which is English, mathematics, and another language, perhaps French, or German or Spanish.

Many adults learn English because it is useful for their work. Teenagers often learn English for their higher studies, because some of their books are in English at college or university. Others learn English because they want to read newspapers or magazines in English.

1. According to the writer _____.

- A. only adults learn English B. no children like to learn English
C. English is popular all over the world D. English is useful only for teenagers

2. Most people learn English by _____.

Mount Everest is the highest mountain in the world. It is also the highest trash pile in the world. About 400 people try to reach the top every year. Having many climbers means a lot of trash.

It is very dangerous to climb Mt. Everest. The air is very thin and cold. Most people carry bottles of oxygen; they could die without it. When the oxygen bottles are empty, people throw them on the ground. When strong winds rip their tents, people leave them behind. They don't have the energy to take the trash away. They only have enough energy to go down the mountain safely.

Trash is a terrible problem. Since people first began to climb Mt. Everest, they have left 50,000 kilos of trash on the mountain. Several groups have climbed the mountain just to pick up the trash. When people plan to climb the mountain, they have to plan to take away their trash.

1. What is the main topic of the passage?

- A. Wind on the mountain B. A problem with trash
C. A dangerous mountain D. Climbing safely

2. Why do climbers leave their trash on the mountain?

- A. Special groups will pick it up. B. The wind will blow it away.
C. They don't have the energy to take it away. D. Other climbers will use it later.

3. Why do climbers on Mount Everest carry bottles of oxygen?

- A. The weather is not cold. B. Climbing makes them tired.
C. The air is very thin. D. They are thirsty.

4. In line 5, what does the word them refer to?

- A. tents B. oxygen bottles C. strong winds D. people
