Sally and Peter ride their bikes most wekends.

Last Saterday it was very cold.

The chidren asked, 'Mum, can we go to the forest near the lake on our bikes?'

Mum said, 'No, there is lots of ice on the roads —it's dangereous.'

Dad said, 'Let's look on the intenet and see what you can do today.'

The family looked at the town websine to find out something different to do.

Peter said, 'Look! There's a new place on Island Road where we can go ice skatting.'

'Let's go there!' said Sally.

'OK, get your coats, hats and scarfes,' said Mum. 'You need to wear warm clothes for skating.'

'OK, Mum,' said the children. 'Shall we wear the sweters Grandma and Grandpa bought us?'

'Yes, do that,' said Mum.

'And I can dribe you to see them on the way home. They always love seeing you,' added Dad.
