

Alice in Wonderland Questions

1. ORDER THE ACTIONS OF THE STORY

- | | |
|--|----------|
| 1. Alice meets the Duchess and the Cheshire Cat | A. _____ |
| 2. Alice cries a pool of tears | B. _____ |
| 3. Alice goes down a rabbit hole | C. _____ |
| 4. Alice receives some advice from a caterpillar | D. _____ |

2. WRITE TRUE OR FALSE:

Alice did not follow the White Rabbit because she was so tired. _____

The tiny golden key fitted the lock and Alice could open the tiny door. _____

When Alice ate a piece of the mushroom, she began growing. _____

Alice had never played croquet so the Queen of Hearts taught her. _____

3. CHOOSE THE CORRECT ANSWERS. THERE COULD BE MORE THAN ONE:

1. Who does Alice meet in Wonderland? Click on the correct answer:

a policeman	a rabbit	a hare	her sister
a chicken	a horse	a cat	a queen
a caterpillar	a king	a dog	a hatter

2. What does Alice do in the story? Alice...

goes to a tea-party	wears gloves
plays tennis	talks to a cat
smokes a pipe	plays croquet
falls down a rabbit-hole	cuts off someone's head

4. WHO SAYS THESE WORDS IN THE STORY? DRAG THE NAME TO EACH SENTENCE:

Alice the queen the white rabbit the Cheshire cat the Hatter

1. 'Oh, where did I drop my gloves?' _____
2. 'I told you that butter wasn't good for watches!' _____
3. 'You can visit either of them. They're both mad.' _____
4. 'Off with his head!.' _____
5. 'How strange everything is today!.' _____

5. CHOOSE THE BEST WORDS TO COMPLETE THE SENTENCES OF CHAPTERS 4 AND 5:

When Alice went into the Duchess's kitchen/bedroom, there was a cat which was screaming/grinning, and a baby who was screaming/grinning. The Duchess gave/took the baby to Alice, but the baby was/turned into a pig. After that Alice had/spoke a conversation with the Cheshire cat and they talked to/about mad people.

At the tea-party, the March Hare said, 'Have some coffee/tea,' but there wasn't some/any. Later, he said to Alice, 'You must mean/say what you mean/say.' Later, the Hatter had a watch which showed/didn't show the time because it was always/never six o'clock there. The tea-party always/never finished, and they just went on moving/moved round the table. Alice thought it was a very clever/stupid tea-party and went away.

6. MATCH THE HALVES OF THE SENTENCES:

The croquet game was very strange...

The Queen of Hearts got very angry...

Then Alice saw her friend the Cheshire cat, ...

The King didn't like the Cat's head...

But the executioner couldn't cut off a head...

After the croquet there was a jury trial to find out...

While the Hatter was giving his evidence,...

At the end Alice began to argue with the Queen,...

but only its head appeared, not its body.

and then she woke up.

because everybody had to use flamingoes for mallets.

who stole the tarts made by the Queen of Hearts.

and wanted to cut it off.

Alice was getting bigger and taller.

and sent nearly everybody to prison.

if there wasn't a body to cut it off from.

7. AT COURT. ANSWER THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS WITH SHORT ANSWERS:

- Who was the prisoner in court? _____
- Who was the jury, men or animals? _____
- Can you remember any animals in the jury? _____
- Who reads the evidence in court? _____
- What does Alice do at the end of the story? _____

8. WRITE THE NAMES OF THE FOLLOWING CHARACTERS:

The _____

The _____ and the _____

The _____, the _____
and the _____

The _____

Well done!

