Modal verbs

Choose the most suitable word or phrase underlined.

a. There's someone at the door. It ought to be/must be the postman.

b. Don't worry, you don't have to/ mustn't pay your drink now.

c. Sorry, I can't stay any longer. I have to go/might go.

d. It was 5 o'clock an hour ago. Your watch can't be/mustn't be right

e. Let's tell Diana. She should not/might not know = it is unlikely/unprobable that she knows

f. In my opinion, the town hall might do/should do something to reduce pollution.

g. Helen must / can be at home now. The lights are on.

h. You don't have to / mustn't wear your face mask at home.

i. When I first came to London I could / couldn't speak only a few words of English.

j. She can / can't be Italian with a name like Smith!

k. I may / can't be able to come. =it is possible that I come

l. It may / must be cold tomorrow.= it is possible that it is cold

m. Irene should/ might come tomorrow. She's not sure yet.

n. We don't have to/ mustn't bring your books to class because we're not using them anymore.