

Describing Places

Fill the gaps with the words

According picturesque inhabited commuters bustle run-down hectic humid destination tax slums

1. A lot of people work at an old _____ factory because it's the only place in the town to earn money.
2. She works in a charity organisation with children who live in poor building which look more like _____.
3. Las Vegas is the country's top holiday _____.
4. She wants to get away from the _____ pace of New York life and relax somewhere.
5. She lives in a very _____ village in Suffolk.
6. Summers in Tokyo are hot and _____.
7. I love the hustle and _____ of the marketplace.
8. _____ to the police, his attackers beat him with a blunt instrument.
9. These remote islands are _____ only by birds.
10. The train was packed with _____.
11. They're increasing the _____ on cigarettes.

Describing Places

Match the words and their meaning bustling

- someone who regularly travels between work and home hustle and bustle

- a very poor and crowded area, especially of a city establish

- (of air and weather conditions) containing extremely small drops of water in the air

commuter

- full of people

humid

- (an amount of) money paid to the government that is based on your income or the cost of goods or services you have bought

crowded

- a small flower, or the small flowers on a tree or plant

tax

- full of busy activity

blossom

- noise and activity picturesque

- (esp. of a place) attractive in appearance

slums

- to start a company or organization that will continue for a long time: