

GETTING READY FOR THE FAMILY DINNER

It's finally the day of Sophie's family dinner. Her grandma, grandpa, uncle Joseph, aunt Sarah, and cousins Sue and Mark are coming for this special day. The food is almost ready. Mom and Dad are in the kitchen. Mom is preparing the meat. Dad is helping. Mom ask Sophie and Matthew to help set the table in the dinning room.

Sophie sets the table. Matthew brings ten plates, ten forks, ten knives, ten spoons, ten of everything they need.

Shophie takes the glasses from the cupboard and Matthew puts them on the table. Then they make name cards by writing each person's name on a card with a nice drawing. Sophie wants to sit between Grandma and Grandpa. "Where am I going to sit?" asks Matthew. He wants to sit between Grandma and Grandpa too. She sits him beside Dad, but he doesn't want to sit there, so Sophie tells him to sit between their cousins Sue and Mark. He thinks it's not fair.

The doorbell rings. They all go to the door and they hug each other. Quietly, Matthew takes his card and Sophie's card and switches places. Then he smiles and goes to give a big kiss to Grandma and Grandpa.
