| write things down by hand | Learning a new language | watch educational videos |
| to communicate with teachers and other learners online. | | watch TV in the new language |

..... is an interesting thing. I need a long time of learning and practice to master a new language. Which means determination and motivation.

First, I need to to learn basic vocabulary and structure. Second, I'm going to because writing things down stimulates my memory. Third, I'm planning to That helps me acquire the language even faster. Forth, I'd like

To sum up, the best way to learn a new language is to surround myself with that language.
