

1

Listen and match.

Listen to a lecturer describing the stages of a plot.
Match the stages to their definitions.

Climax

Resolution

Falling action

The beginning

Rising action

- | | | |
|---|----------------------|---|
| 1 | | This stage is the start of the story. The characters and setting are introduced. |
| 2 | Rising action | In this stage, the main conflict or problem of the story is developed. |
| 3 | | This stage is the main part of the story when most of the action takes place. |
| 4 | | In this stage the characters start to overcome the problem or conflict. |
| 5 | | This stage is the end of the story. Usually, the characters solve the problem they were facing or achieve their goal. |