Asking for descriptions: What ... like?

Tim's mum is on holiday in a seaside town. Complete their telephone conversation with What ... like? questions.

Mum: Hi, Tim. How are you doing?

Tim: I'm OK. How are you? How's your holiday?

Mum: It's fantastic. I'm having a great time!

Tim: _____?

Mum: Excellent! It's hot and sunny every day.

Tim: _____?

Mum: The town is very pretty. There are beautiful houses and buildings.

Tim: _____?

Mum: The people are very friendly.

Tim: _____?

Mum: The beaches are clean and sandy ... and the sea is calm.

Tim: _____?

Mum: The hotel's got very nice facilities – a swimming pool, a spa, a gym, a restaurant ...

Tim: _____?

Mum: The food's delicious and varied.

Tim: _____?

Mum: The hotel staff is very helpful.

Tim: _____?

Mum: Most are local shops on the Main Street, but there's a shopping centre too.

Tim: _____?

Mum: The prices are a bit high, but you can often get a discount. By the way, I met a nice woman and we often do things together.

Tim: _____?

Mum: She's tall and slim with medium-length red hair and green eyes.

Tim: Well, mum. We must stop now. I've got to go to work. Keep enjoying your holiday!

Thanks, darling. Take care. See you next week. Bye.
