

Adjective Clauses

Directions: Combine two sentences together to make one sentence. Put the adjective clause after the noun that it describes. Use "who" or "that" to put the clauses together.

Example: The student is a very nice person. / She comes from Japan.

The student who comes from Japan is a very nice person.

1. We sent a package to our relatives. They live in Iowa.

2. The woman works as a cashier. She sits next to me in class.

3. That's the book. The book has sold many copies.

4. The man was waiting for you at the reception. He sent you the flowers.

5. The car has a bad engine. It was on sale.

6. I lived in an apartment building. It had a very slow elevator.

7. The machine is called razor. It is used to shave beard.

8. The tornado was extremely powerful. It hit Minnesota.

9. We saw the woman at the grocery store. She lives next door.

10. My wife returned the pants. They were too big for me.
