Hooray for Friends
Listening Comprehension

Instructions:

Listen as the passage is read.
Listen as the questions are read.
Listen as the passage is read a second time.
Answer the questions.

1. (a) Based on information used in the passage, state TWO things that friends should do for each.

_____

2. (b) Read each statement below. Write 'F' if the statement is a fact or 'O' if the statement is an opinion.

(A) Friends should always be around when you need them. _____

(B) You can play games with your friends. _____

3. Choose the correct answer to complete the statement below. 'Dan is feeling sad because his dog died.' According to the poem, Mike should:

(A) laugh at Dan's dead dog.

(B) never play with Dan again.

(C) play with Dan to cheer him up.

(D) tease Dan and make him cry.

4. 'Without friends, the world, would be a lonely place for everyone.' This statement is telling us that without other people to talk to and care about, the world would be:

(A) an awful place in which to live.

(B) a cheerful place in which to live.

(C) a great place in which to live.

(D) an orderly place in which to live.

5. Choose the letter next to the correct answer. 'Friends will always help you to succeed.' Which of the following is the opposite of the word 'succeed' as used in the statement?

(A) to do well.

(B) to drop down.

(C) to not do well.

(D) to work hard.

6. Which TWO statements from the passage show some things that could happen in a world that is filled with friends.

_____

22. Choose the letter next to the correct answer. The author's main reason for writing this passage is to show you:

(A) how friends should not behave.

(B) why friends should live together.

(C) that it is important to have friends.

(D) a beautiful world full of friends.

LIVEWORKSHEETS