

- There are four kinds of sentences.

Mom is home.	Declarative (statement)
Did you study?	Interrogative (question)
Pick up that mess.	Imperative (command)
What a great job!	Exclamatory (exclamation)

Read the following sentences. Select statement if the sentence tells something. Select question if the sentence asks something.

1. Daniela brought her lunch to the picnic. _____
2. Are you going to the picnic? _____
3. Will you bring a friend? _____

Read the following sentences. Select command if the sentence tells someone to do something. Select exclamation if the sentence shows strong feeling.

1. The picnic is really going to be fun! _____
2. Bring me the plate. _____
3. Wait for me over there. _____

