

D Working at home

Complete this text about working at home, using the comparative forms of the adjectives in brackets. Sometimes you must also use than.

Some people say that working at home is better than <sup>0</sup> (good) going out to work. They say that people who work at home are <sup>1</sup> (free), their hours are <sup>2</sup> (flexible) and they are able to live <sup>3</sup> (relaxed) lives. They're <sup>4</sup> (happy) people who work in offices, and if they want, they can be <sup>5</sup> (lazy) too.

But other people say that working at home can be <sup>6</sup> (difficult) going out to work.

They say that for some people, working at home is <sup>7</sup> (stressful). People who do it are <sup>8</sup> (lonely) people who can talk to colleagues at work, and they also have to be <sup>9</sup> (organized).

Working at home instead of going out to work is getting <sup>10</sup> (common) in many parts of the world. But it doesn't suit everyone.

F Interview with a travel writer

Complete the questions asked in an interview with a travel writer, using superlative forms of the adjectives in brackets.

- 0 What's the best (good) place you've ever been to?
- 1 Tell me about the most exciting (exciting) trip you've ever made.
- 2 What do you think is the most beautiful (beautiful) place you've visited?
- 3 Which hotel is the nicest (nice) one you've ever stayed in?
- 4 What are the most difficult (difficult) parts of your job?
- 5 What's the funniest (funny) thing that's ever happened to you?
- 6 Which city is the cleanest (clean) and which one is the dirtiest (dirty)?
- 7 Tell me about the hottest (hot) place you have ever been to and the coldest (cold) place.
- 8 What's the worst (bad) experience you've ever had on your travels?
- 9 What's the most interesting (interesting) thing that's happened to you?
- 10 Which country has the friendliest (friendly) people, in your opinion?

G The company I work for

Adam is talking about his job. Complete what he says, using the words in brackets in the correct comparative or superlative forms and patterns.

This year I got a new job, and my new job is better than <sup>0</sup> (good) my old one. I now work for ..... <sup>1</sup> (big) company in this area, and my company is ..... <sup>2</sup> (successful) any other company in our industry. Our products are ..... <sup>3</sup> (popular) the ones other companies sell and other companies don't have ..... <sup>4</sup> (employees) us. This year was ..... <sup>5</sup> (good) year in the company's history. Our sales were ..... <sup>6</sup> (high) last year and the company is getting ..... and ..... <sup>7</sup> (big). My job is ..... <sup>8</sup> (interesting) job I've ever had. My office is ..... <sup>9</sup> (far) from my home than my previous one, so my journey to work is ..... <sup>10</sup> (long), but my previous job was not ..... <sup>11</sup> (challenging) this one and I didn't earn ..... <sup>12</sup> (money) I earn now. I'm very happy now. My colleagues are ..... <sup>13</sup> (nice) people I've ever met and I'm working for ..... <sup>14</sup> (fine) company in this area.

