Last week Lan went to an International Food Festival taking place in Hai Phong. Because the festival only took place for one day, hundreds of people crowded into it. It was the biggest food festival she had ever seen. There were thirty countries participating in the festival. They brought with them traditional food specialities which reflected their unique national cuisine .

She was really impressed by the Cobb salad. It is an American garden salad made from chopped salad greens, tomato, bacon, chicken breast, hard-boiled egg, avocado, cheese, and red-wine vinaigrette. Although the salad requires quite a few ingredients, it is quick to make. The American chef at the festival showed her the way to make the salad and it took her only 15 minutes to complete. How amazing! The next day she made Cobb salad for her mum for lunch, and her mum loved it right away.

Another good dish is steak pie, a traditional British meat pie made from stewing steak and beef gravy, enclosed in a pastry shell. Unfortunately, she did not have enough time to listen to the chef give instructions on how to make this dish. However, she tried it and it was brilliant.

Next year, if there is another food festival, she will definitely join in.
