Part II: READING

Read the passage:

ANNE FRANK

Anne Frank was a Jewish girl who lived during World War II. She and her family hid from the Nazis during the Holocaust. The diary that Anne wrote while in hiding tells what life was like for many Jews during this terrible time.

Anne Frank was born in Frankfurt, Germany, in 1929. Anne and her mother, father, and sister moved to Holland in 1933. They moved when the Nazis began to take away the rights of Jewish Germans.

In 1942 the Nazis took control of Holland. To hide from the Nazis, Anne's family began living in a secret place behind the office of her father's business. Four other Jewish people hid with the Franks. They all had to be very quiet so that they would not be discovered. Sometimes they would have to sit for hours without moving. They could not turn on light at night. Friends who were not Jewish would sneak food, clothing, and books to the families.

While in hiding, Anne Frank wrote her thoughts in a diary. She described what it was like to live in hiding. She wrote about her hopes for the future.

Two years later the Nazis discovered the secret hiding place. The Franks and the other Jewish people were sent to concentration camps. Anne died in a camp when she was 15 years old.

After World War II ended, people were looking through the ruins of the office building where Anne had hidden. There they found Anne's diary. In 1947 her diary was made into a book called The Diary of a Young Girl. It was also made into a movie.

Anne's diary is famous throughout the world. Today the place where Anne and her family hid is the Anne Frank Museum. Near the museum is a statue that honors the memory of Anne Frank.

A) Answer to these questions.

1. What does Anne's diary tell about?

2. Why did Anne and her family move to Holland?

3. How did Anne and the people who were hidden have to behave?

4. Where was Anne's diary found?

5. What is the place where Anne and her family hid nowadays?
