

1. Differentiation is about _____.

- a. testing for grades and promotion
- b. teaching with all in mind
- c. teaching different subjects

2. The full meaning of VARK is _____.

- a. Visionary, athletes, reads and knowledge
- b. Visual, readers are auditory learners
- c. Visual, auditory, read & write and kinesthetic

3. Students who have little or no familiarity with the contents of a lesson can complete tasks on the lower levels:

- a. Remembering and understanding.
- b. Apply and analyze the content
- c. Evaluating and creating

4. The main ways to differentiate instructions are :

- a. Content, contact, process and learning environment.
- b. Process, product, learning activities and content.
- c. Content, process, product and learning environment.

5. The level 3 of blooms taxonomy is _____.

- a. creating
- B. applying
- c. analyzing

@Mrs. Igwe