THE LANGUAGE OF CLOTHES

We don't only choose clothes to make us look attractive. We also use them to tell the world (16) our personality. The clothes we wear and our appearance as a whole give other people useful information about what we think and (17) we feel. If we feel cheerful, we usually wear (18) clothes and if we feel depressed we sometimes put on dark clothes. But why do teenagers wear black so frequently?. Is it because they feel miserable all the time ?. This is unlikely to be the case. It is probably just because it is (19)to wear black, and young people are real fans (20) fashion.

Read the passage below and choose the best answer (A, B, C or D) to each question.

Instructors at American colleges and universities use many different teaching methods.

Some instructors give assignments every day. They grade homework. Students in their classes have to take many quizzes, a midterm exam, and a final test. Other instructors give only writing assignments. Some teachers always follow a course outline and usually use the text book. Others send students to the library for assignment.

The atmosphere in some classrooms is very formal. Students call their instructors “Professor Smith,” “Mrs. Jones”, and so on. Some teachers wear business clothes and give lectures. Others classrooms have an informal atmosphere. Students and teachers discuss their ideas. Instructors dress informally, and students call them by their first names. American teachers are not alike in their teaching styles.

At most American colleges and universities, facilities for learning and recreation are available to students. Students can often use type-writers, tape recorders, video machines, and computers at libraries and learning centres. They can buy books, notebooks, and other things at campus stores. They can get advice on their problems from counselors and individual help with their classes from tutors. Students can relax and have fun on campus, too. Some schools have swimming pools and tennis courts. Most have snack bars or cafeterias.
