

UNIT 18: WHAT'S YOUR PHONE NUMBER?

1. Choose the odd one out.

0.	a. T-shirt	b. Where	c. Who	d. What
1.	a. shorts	b. shirt	c. phone number	d. jeans
2.	a. play	b. classroom	c. swim	d. dance
3.	a. engineer	b. cinema	c. school	d. bookshop
4.	a. talk	b. speak	c. say	d. picnic
5.	a. relax	b. mountain	c. fresh air	d. mobile phone

2. Read and match.

A	B	A → B
0. What sports do you like?	A. Sorry, I can't. I can't skate.	0 → B
1. May I speak to Mai, please?	B. I like football.	1 →
2. Would you like to go skating?	C. Mai's speaking. Who's it?	2 →
3. Do you have Mr Quan's phone number?	D. Yes. I'd love to.	3 →
4. Why does he want to go to the pharmacy?	E. Sorry, I don't have his phone number.	4 →
5. What about going for a picnic?	F. Because his father's sick and he wants to buy medicine.	5 →

3. Read and complete the passage.

preparing

countryside

going fishing

fresh air

a good time

mobile phone

In summer, Anna usually goes to the (0) countryside with his family. They want to visit their grandparents and enjoy the (1) _____. Anna likes skipping with some friends and she also enjoys taking photographs with her (2) _____. Her father enjoys playing chess with her grandfather. Her brother likes (3) _____ with some cousins. Her mother loves (4) _____ a big dinner for the family. They enjoy having (5) _____ in the peaceful countryside.

4. Re-order the sentences to make a dialogue. Write the number in the box.

1. Sorry, I can't. I can't skate. What about going for a picnic?
2. Hey Nam. We are free this Sunday. Would you like to go skating?
3. Good idea. What do you want to bring for lunch?
4. I like noodles. So I'll bring some. How about you?
5. I'll bring some chicken and lemonade.
6. Great! See you this Sunday.

2
---	--	--	--	--	--