

A photograph of a family shopping in a grocery store. A male employee in a blue apron is talking to a family consisting of a man, a woman, and a young girl. The woman is holding a mesh shopping bag. To the right, there is a large display of pumpkins. A speech bubble is positioned above the family, and another speech bubble contains text. The background shows various grocery store aisles.

Of course. Those are in the pantry
aisle.

Yes! You can find those in the bakery.

Yes! Those are in the produce
section.
