Hi Kate,

I hope you are doing well. I just wanted to tell you about my travel experience from last weekend. I visited my grandmother at the beach, and I realized that there are many important aspects you must consider when you travel.

The most important thing is to have your documents in order and the travel tickets or flight tickets at hand, or even your passport if you are going to travel abroad. Another thing to take into account is traveling light, pack only what you need because at the airport they can charge you for extra luggage.

Finally, I think you should always carry extra money in case of emergencies, you never know when you will need it. By the way, I had to go to the doctor because I got sick and I didn't have enough money to pay for the medicines, fortunately my grandmother was there.

I hope you find this information useful when you travel, let me know what you think about it.

See you soon.

Your friend,

Paulina.
