

2. Listen to the introduction of the radio program and check the correct options.

a) What's the name of the program?
- ( ) Teen Time.
- ( ) Teens Talk.

b) What kind of program is that?
- ( ) Radio advice.
- ( ) Career choices.

c) What number should you call?
- ( ) 1-800-215-8336.
- ( ) 1-800-245-8363.

d) How are the questions answered?
- ( ) Live and by email.
- ( ) Live and on Facebook.

e) How often is the show on?
- ( ) Every day.
- ( ) Once a week.

3. Nina is 13 years old and she wants to go to a pop concert without her parents. She's calling the radio program with two questions. Listen to Nina's call and check the questions she makes.

a) Question 1:
- ( ) Do you think this would be OK?
- ( ) Is it OK to go without my parents?

b) Question 2:
- ( ) Should I convince my mom not to go?
- ( ) How do I convince my parents?

4. Listen to one of the answers and fill in the blanks with the correct words.

Hi, Nina, I'm Rachel. I'm not much _____ than you, and even I would have to say _____. Although there will be a lot of security (because she's a popular singer), you _____ take the risk. It's not too _____ for two 13-year-olds. If there was a larger group of you, it might be a little safer, but you could easily get _____ or hit on by some creep. It just doesn't seem safe to me, _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS