

Read the text and fill in the gaps with the proper grammatical form of the capitalized words

A children's charity fund did an interesting experiment. They <input type="text"/> a list of questions for children, and asked kids in different countries around the world about their hopes, dreams and fears.	MAKE
It was discovered that education, food and the environment were their biggest <input type="text"/> .	WORRY
For example, the children <input type="text"/> the question:	ASK
"If you were the president of your country, what <input type="text"/> you do to improve the lives of children in your country?" Most said they would pay more attention to education.	WILL
The fund representative was happy that the children <input type="text"/> the link between education and a better future.	SEE
She said: "I am surprised to see how clever and wise <input type="text"/> children are."	WE
As for children's fears, over 30% said their <input type="text"/> fear was dangerous animals and insects.	GREAT