PART II. Poem Reading. Recite the poem below to your teacher.

Back to School Snack Mix

The night before school is exciting and fun,
there are always so many things to be done.
Your clothes are ready, your backpack is too.
Your classroom is full of fun things you will do.
There are so many questions that run through your mind,
all types of thoughts of every kind.
But sometimes we all get the jitters down deep
and that makes it hard to fall fast asleep.
So I've made a magic snack mix, it is really cool.
It will help you be rested and ready for school.
Just eat this snack right before bed
on the night before school starts when you lay down your head.
The snack will help you sleep thorough the night
and you'll wake up in the morning so fresh and so bright!
I'll be sure to have this magic snack, too.
And remember, I just can't wait for school so I can see YOU!
