A week without technology

I recently spent a whole week without my phone or laptop! Guess what! It was actually OK! My dad booked our summer holiday ages ago. When we (1) getting ready to go, he came into my bedroom and told me that if I took my phone or laptop, it (2) be more or less useless because there was no Wi-Fi or network at the house he (3) rented.

The place (4) we were staying was in the middle of the countryside, so I got ready for the most boring week of my life. My dad asked (5) I wanted to go for a walk with him. I said that there was nothing else to do so I went. We found this amazing little house in the forest. It (6) made of wood and it looked like someone lived in it. We also saw lots of wild animals and birds. The next day, we did the same thing and had a great time. And the next day, too.

Since we got back home, I (7) used my phone quite a bit less. Even though it wasn't that bad, I'm (8) to make sure I'm sitting next to my dad when he books our next holiday!

Task 2

Read the blog post and decide which answer (A, B, C or D) best fits each gap.

My bedroom

In today's post, I want to tell you about my bedroom. A few months ago, I was bored (9) my bedroom so I asked my parents if I could decorate it. The colours were (10) – they were the same as when I was a little girl and I really hated them. We have (11) heating in our house so I decided to paint the radiator red. I painted the walls light blue and put up posters of my favourite rock (12) I also put up an absolutely (13) poster of my favourite actor – it's like she's actually in the room with me! I'm really into (14) so I've also got some of my pictures up – I think they look great.

The whole room looks fantastic and I'm not (15) any more when my friends come into my bedroom.
