DRAG AND DROP

I was only dreaming on Sunday day.

When I was very scared, someone touched my back and called my name repeatedly.

Nobody was there on my sight.

I was in the garden one afternoon.

My friends left me there without any words.

The day was getting dark.

I looked around the entire garden.

I was shocked and got up from my bed and my mom was behind me.

I was completely alone.

It made me scared.
