50.

Often you don't hear the exact words given in the question. Instead, you hear a synonym, a similar word, or an opposite. For example, if the question contains the word difficult, you might hear too hard or not easy.

Try the following exercise (from Cambridge IELTS 4, page 85). The speaker explains the problems involved with 4 different school science experiments.

A) too messy

B) too boring

C) too difficult

D) too much equipment

E) too long

F) too easy

G) too noisy

H) too dangerous

Experiment 1: _____

Experiment 2: _____

Experiment 3: _____

Experiment 4: _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS