

ASKING AND GIVING EXAMPLE TEST

A. Match the sentences in the left with the sentence or noun in the right

1. James can speak several languages.
2. He is fluent in languages
3. PC makers
4. I can play quite a few musical instruments,
5. Car companies
6. My father loves going to restaurants which serve exotic foods.

- A. For example, last week he went to a restaurant which serves deep-fried rattlesnake.
- B. such as Toyota and Ford manufacture their automobiles in many different countries around the world.
- C. for example, the flute, the guitar, and the piano.
- D. such as Acer and Samsung sell millions of laptops every year.
- E. such as English, French, Spanish and Chinese.
- F. For instance, he is fluent in English, French, Spanish and Chinese.

B. State true or false from the sentences below

7. When I go camping, I bring lots of things. For example, a fishing rod, matches, and a sleeping bag.
 - A. True
 - B. False
8. There have been many leaders in history who have tried to rule the entire world, for instance, Julius Caesar and Alexander the Great.
 - A. True
 - B. False

9. Do you have any hobbies, e.g., collecting stamps or baseball cards?
- A. True
 - B. False
10. Food, such as, pizza and hamburgers are not really junk food; they contain a lot of protein and vitamins.
- A. True
 - B. False
11. Oyce has studied many Asian languages for instance Korean, Chinese, and Thai.
- A. True
 - B. False
12. Evelyn has taken many psychology classes, e.g., Behavior Psychology 102, Child Psychology 223, and Group Dynamics 301.
- A. True
 - B. False
13. When I visit Korea, I want to go to many cities such as Seoul and Taegu.
- A. True
 - B. False
14. Calcium is found in green leafy vegetables; for example, broccoli, kale, arugula, or spinach have over 160 mg. per serving.
- A. True
 - B. False
15. I can't stand green vegetables, such as broccoli, spinach, or brussels sprouts.
- A. True
 - B. False