

Dear Diary.

today is 23rd October. It's my birthday and I'm very happy.

But there's one problem! It's raining now.

I can't have my party in the garden.

My friends and I like playing football and volleyball.

My party starts at half past four. Now it's two o'clock and my sister, Susan, is in the living room with her friends. They are singing and playing the piano.

My mother is cooking a delicious cake for me...
