Name:…… Form: 1……

Day:…… Date:……..

Lesson 4	Focus skill: Writing (4.1.3; 4.1.5)
Theme: Consumerism and Financial Awareness	Topic: Money (NTB)

Complete the story below with the coordinating conjunctions or reference pronouns given in the table below. The clues given in the brackets after each line will help you to decide whether to use a coordinating conjunction (cc) or a reference pronoun (rp) to fill in the blank.

Coordinating Conjunctions (cc)			Reference Pronouns (rp)
and	but	for	he	her	it	she or	so	yet	that	them	which	who

Candy received RM2000 from her grandfather as her birthday gift. She was told to spend it as she wished. First of all, Candy bought herself a tablet, as _____(rp) had wanted one for ages. The tablet cost RM1100, _____(cc) as it was the last one in the shop, and was in the shop window, she could buy _____(rp) at a discounted price of RM 1090. _____(rp) was good news, _____(cc) Candy bought it immediately.

After that, she went to the market. She bought herself a smart jacket _____(cc) a matching skirt for RM325 and a beautiful silk scarf for RM80. She asked the young man who was manning the stall to reduce the price by RM5, and _____(rp) agreed. Candy was happy with her purchases but she was hungry, thirsty and tired by now. She went to a food stall nearby and bought a fruit juice and a sandwich, _____(rp) cost her RM25.

On her way home, she decided to buy some presents for her family. She could not decide whether to get _____(rp) mum a vase _____(cc) a potted plant. In the end, she got her mum a lovely vase that was on sale. She bought it for RM 75. Then, she saw a lovely painting of a sunset. Her dad loves sunsets. The shopkeeper wanted RM180, but she persuaded him to sell it to her for RM155. She also bought RM15 worth of sweets for her younger brother _____(rp) has a sweet tooth. She was still angry with him _____(cc) breaking her watch, _____(cc) she still loves him.

Finally, she was ready to come home. She was happy thinking how her family would be surprised by the gifts she bought for _____(rp).

LIVEWORKSHEETS