What's your favourite object from your childhood?

Listen and fill in the gaps with the missing words

Young woman: My favourite object from my childhood is a ..... where I used to .....anything in and my .....and the reason it's my favourite is because I find it hilarious to go back and see what I .....and my spelling and how I .....the world at that time.

British man: My favourite object from my childhood was a ..... well, almost a sword. It was a .....sabre and I got it for my ..... birthday and what I immediately did with it, just before I .....it, was .....my sister's toy which she got for her.....

British lady: My favourite objects were dolls... not very original but I liked to make .....for them and I liked to play..... I made little exercise books for them and I stupidly would actually write the .....and then have to mark my own questions that I'd asked while they were outside playing during the break and hours of fun, hours of fun.

LIVEWORKSHEETS