

Read the dialog carefully.

Dena : Hedy, let's play another game.

Hedy : Sorry, I can't. I have to get home.

Dena : Why so soon?

Hedy : I want to help my mom cook the dinner.

Dena : She can do that alone. She doesn't need your help.

Hedy : I don't think so. My mom has been very busy all day. She could always use a little help. Don't you help your mom at home?

Dena : Sometimes.

Hedy : Doesn't that make her happy?

Dena : I think so.

Hedy : Well, seeing my mom happy always makes me happy too.

Dena : Yes, I agree with you on that.

Answer the questions with full sentences based on the dialog.

1. Where is Hedy going to go?
2. What is she going to do?
3. Does her mother need her help?
4. Why does she like to help her mom?
5. Does Dena like to see her mom happy?
6. How to make our mom happy?

1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.

Complete the dialog using the expressions in the box.

- a. I don't think that's a good idea.
- b. I agree.
- c. Yes, I guess you are right.
- d. That's not right.

Billy : How about having a picnic this weekend, Tony?

Tony : (1) That will be nice.

Billy : What to bring, then?

Tony : Some sandwiches and a mat to sit.

Billy : I think we should bring lots of water too.

Tony : (2) There are tap in the picnic field.

Billy : Can we go after 11 o'clock?

Tony : (3) It will be too hot.

Billy : (4)